

Minnesota Private Colleges: Earning Credit in High School

There are opportunities for high school students to earn college credit that will be recognized when they enroll at our 18 nonprofit institutions. The following is a summary of what individual colleges recognize and accept when first-year students have participated in Advanced Placement (AP), concurrent enrollment (such as College in the Schools, CIS), College-Level Examination Program (CLEP), International Baccalaureate (IB) and Post-secondary Enrollment Options (PSEO).

Check the colleges' websites for more details and the most up-to-date information.
