Or anytime during the year

You're working hard on your associate's degree — and aiming for a bachelor's as well. Plan ahead and think about where you want to transfer to for that next step. (The sooner you know where you're going to earn your bachelor's degree the better.)

Not sure about private nonprofit colleges? Check us out. Our colleges offer a well-rounded education and a solid foundation for your future. And you may not realize how affordable we can be.

Private colleges are excellent transfer options. They'll broaden your horizons, sharpen your skills and equip you to meet your goals.

PLAN CAMPUS VISITS

Come on Veteran's Day or Presidents Day

Many private colleges host Transfer Campus Visits on Nov. 12, 2018 & Feb. 18, 2019 — days when community colleges are closed. Visits will include time for talking with admission staff and seeing what campus life is like.

See where transfer visit days are being held and register: mnprivatecolleges.org/transfer-visits.

If you're unable to come on Nov. 12 or Feb. 18, you can set up a visit another time. Contact our admissions offices directly; find details at mnprivatecolleges.org/transfer-admissions.
